CHF 29.00

Whey protein is the English name for whey protein. It is one of the biologically highest quality and best tolerated proteins. Weider has succeeded in developing a high-quality protein powder that has a very good taste and meets nutritional and physiological requirements.

The production method plays an important role here, as micro-filtered protein is used that is not exposed to high heat or pressure. The composition of the product provides a high content of important BCAAs and glutamine E.

Product characteristics:

- Whey protein isolate (Whey)
- Microfiltered whey protein concentrate (Whey)
- Naturally contained bioactive nutrients such as globulins and glycomacropeptides
- Free glutamine E (2g per dose!)
- Aspartame free

Training phase:

- Strength building phase
- Definition phase

Recommended intake:

- Premium Whey Protein is quickly absorbed by the body. It is therefore particularly suitable for breakfast and after training.
