The WallBars, the classic piece of sports equipment, has an integrated cantilever that can be easily folded out. Hanging exercises and pull-ups on the WallBars - the top rung is easy to fold out and locks into place with a noticeable click. The stable cantilever offers sufficient space for strengthening hanging and swinging exercises.

Additional accessories such as CombiTrainer, MultiAdapter and training bench turn the WallBars wall bars into a multifunctional training station. All rungs are individually bolted for effective training and provide optimum support.

Solid wood, heavy-duty safety ropes on the bracket and an additional locking mechanism make the wall bars safe and stable - ideal for multifunctional training sessions.

Every WallBar from NOHrD is made by hand in our own factory and is subject to the highest quality standards!
