The innovative GRID Nano is specially designed for treatment on sensitive areas such as the sole of the foot and forearm. The innovative GRID Nano is specially designed to increase flexibility and relieve minor muscle pain. The harder surface is suitable for those who prefer a more intense massage.

The Grid Nano X is designed to replicate the feel of a massage therapist's fingertips.

The innovative NANO Roller is specially designed to work on sensitive areas such as the sole of the foot and forearm. With the NANO Roller you can treat muscle problems in these sensitive regions optimally and selectively.

In addition, the flexibility of the muscles in these two body regions is optimally promoted by the treatment with the NANO Roller.

The specially designed surface allows an enormously systematic and effective treatment as well as the optimal nutrient supply of the muscle during the therapy.
