

Tunturi textile resistance bands set of 3 (14TUSYO055)

The Tunturi textile resistance band set is suitable for toning the gluteal muscles, legs and thighs. Training with the resistance bands improves strength, tones and shapes the muscles.

CHF 32.90

As resistance is progressive, the textile exercise bands can be used in combination to increase the overall resistance.

- made of high-quality and robust textile
- all 3 bands are very wide and equipped with anti-slip strips on the inside so that the bands do not roll up, slip or cut uncomfortably into the athlete's skin during training.
- 3 different strengths: turquoise (light resistance), blue (medium resistance), gray (strong resistance)
