Sponser Oat Pack - suitable as a tasty snack at work and everyday life, on bike tours, hiking and trekking.

Oat flakes are rich in satiating dietary fibers (beta-glucans) and thus provide a long-lasting energy supply. The blood sugar level thus remains constant for a long time and energy deficits do not occur.

Macadamia nuts are considered to be the finest and tastiest nuts of all and were already used by the aborigines of Australia as a protein and fat-rich food source. Tiger nuts are grown mainly in Spain in the region around Valencia. Both nuts are rich in unsaturated fatty acids and provide fat-soluble vitamins (E, A, K, D) and various minerals such as potassium and calcium.
