80% whey protein powder with vitamins, minerals and L-glutamine. With sweeteners*. * Contains a source of phenylalanine.

- Whey protein is the highest quality single protein source. The great advantage of whey protein is its rapid absorption into the body. In addition, it has a particularly high proportion of essential amino acids and is rich in branched-chain amino acids. The free L-glutamine covers the increased glutamine needs of the athlete in the regeneration phase.
- Drink 1-3 servings throughout the day, especially after training.
- Mix 30 g powder with 300 ml water or low-fat milk.
