

Synca KiTTA - Massage Gun

Our KiTTa massage gun is always on the spot - and to the point! The cordless vibration massager is absolutely versatile. Exactly where you need it, it loosens tense muscles, promotes blood circulation and accelerates regeneration. You determine the intensity and have the choice between 6 different massage attachments for different body regions.

Effective massage and regeneration

The muscles ache? The tissue is hardened? Whether after sport or due to incorrect strain, with the targeted use of the KiTTa massage gun you can relieve tension or adhesions in the connective tissue all over the body. The deep-acting vibration massage with up to 3,000 beats per minute promotes blood circulation, reduces lactate, increases mobility and massages almost every region of the body with pinpoint accuracy.

Versatile for use all over the body

The KiTTa massage gun comes with six interchangeable attachments that are perfectly matched to the respective area of use. Thanks to the six intensity levels, which are easily regulated on the display at the touch of a button, you can vary the treatment to suit your individual preferences. In the practical transport case, KiTTa, including attachments and charger, can be easily taken along on trips or to the gym to pamper you with an effective massage at any time.
