The simple, modern design of the massage cushion fits perfectly into your lifestyle and living style. For wonderful moments of relaxation, the iPuffy is made of pleasant, natural materials with cotton.

Naturally shaped

The gentle curve makes the iPuffy particularly cuddly - whether you enjoy your massage sitting or lying down. The massage cushion flexibly adapts to your individual sensation and your body. Whether you have pain in the lumbar region or in the neck, the iPuffy gently wraps itself around you. And with the switchable heat function you will experience an even deeper relaxation and loosening of the muscles. Thanks to the ergonomic shape, you will always find the right massage position to relieve even the most stubborn tensions and hardenings.

So versatile in use

Whether in the neck or shoulder area, the lower back, the buttocks or abdomen, the thighs or calves and finally the feet or hands, with the iPuffy you can cover almost all areas of the body thanks to the cordless design. The switchable heat function provides even deeper relaxation and loosening of the muscles. A timer automatically limits the recommended application time to 20 minutes.
