The low-calorie protein bar with 190kcal provides a considerable amount of protein with up to 28%. Milk protein (main part), whey protein isolate and soy protein serve as a source. In addition to protein, almost 10g of fiber from natural inulin provide long saturation. The sugar content is less than 2g and no additional sugar was added. The proportion is naturally contained in the ingredients. However, the absolute highlight are the delicious shortbread pieces in the bar. Together with the protein crispies, the otherwise soft bar thus has a delicious crunchy bite.
