

Body Solid Pro Club Line Olympic Incline Bench (SOIB250)

The commercial Pro Clubline SOIB250 incline bench is designed to meet the needs of any facility. The backrest is set at a 30° angle, which is ideal for training the upper pectoral muscles, and is constructed of heavy-duty 11-gauge steel construction with solid deadlifts and durable, double-stitched padding to withstand the heaviest weights. The integrated spotter platform provides maximum safety during heavy lifts. Composite lining on the barbell holders protects your barbell and bench. High-quality, commercial-grade components ensure reliability and dependability even under heavy use in busy gyms and clubs.
