

Body Solid Olympic Shoulder Press Bench (SOSB250)

The fully commercial Pro Clubline SOSB250 Shoulder Press Bench is designed to meet the needs of any facility. The 50 x 76mm heavy-duty 11-gauge steel frame construction with solid lifters and durable double-stitched padding stands up to the heaviest weights. Adjustable safety stops and integrated spotter platform ensure maximum safety during heavy lifting operations. Multiple lift and drop positions allow users of all sizes to perform safe and effective shoulder press movements. Composite liner on the bar supports protects your bar and bench. High-quality, commercial-grade components ensure reliability and safety even under heavy use in gyms and clubs.
