

Schwinn 800IC Indoor Bike

Discover something new every day with the Schwinn 800IC, the indoor fitness bike that connects to premium app experiences like JRNY™, Peloton® and Zwift® for your smartphone or tablet. The clear LCD display shows the relevant training parameters and, via a Bluetooth connection, the heart rate. At the same time, the connection to various training apps such as JRNY™ or Zwift can be established via Bluetooth (smartphone or tablet required). The precise magnetic braking system and modern technical equipment make the Schwinn 800IC a powerful and high-quality training partner.

CHF 1'290.00

The Schwinn 800IC sets new standards in the indoor cycling sector. The precise magnetic braking system and the modern technical equipment make the 800IC a powerful and high-quality training partner for at home. Thanks to the precisely adjustable braking system, training can be controlled individually and precisely. The magnetic brake can be finely adjusted in 100 resistance levels to optimize training. A power of up to 1000 watts can be achieved. The training targets based on time, distance, calorie consumption and heart rate via the integrated pulse receiver allow for versatile training. The Schwinn 800IC can be connected to the training apps JRNY, Zwift, Explore the World, Kinomap and the Peloton Digital iOS app.
