Portability redefined

The TrExercise mat is made of ultra-light TPE or EPDM, making it your ideal travel companion. So your fitness training remains an integral part of your trip.

Vibrant versatility

Whether you're lying in the sun on a quiet beach or doing your workout in a busy city park, the non-slip surface and cushioning properties provide the ideal foundation for your yoga and fitness routine.

Sustainable serenity

Immerse yourself in the eco-friendly atmosphere of the TrExercise mat: made from sustainable TPE or EPDM, the mat not only ensures your well-being, but also that of your environment. Feel good with every exercise, knowing that you are gently touching the ground.

Global inspiration

Each TrExercise mat is inspired by the beauty of different landscapes around the world. Choose a color design that speaks to your inner adventurer and lets you take a piece of your favorite travel destinations with you wherever you go.

Perfect positioning

The TrExercise mats are positioned in the sweet spot between affordability and the well-known Airex excellence and thus represent the entry into the Airex world.
