

Body Solid Club Line - Incline Bench Press Station (SIP1400)

Sit back on the extra-thick, specially sewn and double-stitched pads and feel the adrenaline flow. Place your hands on the multi-adjustable handles, and as you face the ceiling at a 35° angle, you'll be ready for the upper chest workout of a lifetime. This Incline Press machine is built for the toughest workout. The 5 x 10 cm main frame is designed to resist twisting and wear. This machine will give your upper pectoral muscle and triceps a serious workout. The ergonomically precise movement is guided by oil-coated bronze bushings for a smooth, comfortable workout. After just a short time, your body will be as well-built and well-proportioned as the machine itself.
