

Body Solid Club Line - Biceps Station (SBC600)

This state-of-the-art biceps curl machine is in the Body Solid tradition of strength, durability and function. As you would expect from the Pro Club Line, the Biceps Curl features an impressive array of amenities - all designed to strict quality standards. The rotating handle bar with multiple grips and oil-impregnated bronze bushings ensures full range of motion for maximum upper and lower biceps contraction. Fully adjustable seat pad and scientifically designed contoured arm pad ensure precise fulcrum alignment for proper body positioning. Variable resistance curve provides strong and consistent arm movement for optimal results. Unique design for maximum comfort for arms, chest and back even with extremely heavy weights.
